About the Module

Auto State Transition · https://extensionkit.unitfly.com/documentation/about-auto-state-transition/

Auto State Transition is intended for use in complex workflows, where the same users appear several times in the role of validators. With the rules in the Auto state transition module, we can ensure that in such cases each person validates the document only once, thus shortening the time required to validate the document and relieving the validators of multiple verifications.